

Other Feral Cat Spay-Neuter Resources

If Best Friends Catnippers is not able to handle your immediate needs, we recommend you explore Sue Freeman's website which is an excellent resource on feral cat information in Los Angeles. Her website is located on the Internet at www.rescueguide.org.

In addition, we suggest you contact these other organizations:

Pasadena Humane Society, SNIP program, offers free spay/neuter for ferals in Pasadena, So. Pasadena, La Canada, San Marino, Glendale, Arcadia and Altadena, (626) 792-7151, extension 106.

Actors & Others for Animals, offers funding for spay/neuter and medical expenses for ferals, (818) 755-6045

Pet Assistance Foundation, offers funding for spay/neuter and medical expenses for ferals, (877) 772-9738

Pet Orphans Fund – offers funding for spay/neuter services and medical expenses – (818) 901-0190

Spay USA – offers funding for spay/neuter for ferals, (800) 248-SPAY

Feral Cat Caretakers Coalition, offers help with feral cat caregivers issues, (310) 820-4122.

Feral Cat Coalition, runs monthly clinics in San Diego, but also offers help with feral cat caregivers issues, (619) 758-9194, also located at www.feralcat.com.

Foundation for Indigent Animals, helps fund medical expenses for ferals. (619) 466-0426.

The Lange Foundation - offers funding for spay/neuter services and medical expenses for ferals, (310) 472-7727.

Alley Cat Allies, a national organization with information on feral cats, www.alleycat.org (202) 667-3630.

Best Friends Animal Society Hotline – help with non spay/neuter animal issues, (818) 377-9778.